Donald Pratt, Jr. of 429 South Main Street in Cohasset has been named to the Dean's List at Babson College for the 1979 Spring semester. The announcement was made by Dr. Arthur Bayer, Dean of the Undergraduate Program. To be named to the Dean's List, Pratt has achieved a cumulative average of above 9.30 on a 12-point scale.

Robert C. Bergenheim of 25 Hobart Lane, a Boston University trustee since November, 1976, has been named vice president for Labor and Public Relations. Mr. Bergenheim assumed his position, a new one in the University, this week.

Summer in Cohasset means there's time for some "nerf" football, whatever that is. Thrower on your left is John Atkinson, 9, of north Main Street. And without an engine to feed, Rachel Scott, Robin Plank and Chani Waterhouse took a ride without a wait. That's "Peaches" doing the driving along Atlantic Avenue. (Greg Derr Photo)

In announcing the appointment, Dr. Silber said: "During Mr. Bergenheim's distinguished 40-year career in journalism, he has had extensive experience in labor relations and has demonstrated the administrative skills necessary for this position. As a dedicated Alumni Trustee,

Mr. Bergenheim has proved his sensitivity and astuteness in University affairs, and has also demonstrated exceptional personal qualities in dealing with people."

Mr. Bergenheim, who is the former publisher of the Boston Herald American, also directed newspaper operations for the McClatchy chain in northern California from 1973 to 1975.
